Applications for the remaining available places
(studies in the second semester, with an Erasmus grant)

Important information:

- a) You can apply for a mobility in the spring (2nd) semester only.
- b) The Erasmus grant for the mobility depends on the destination:
  - 500 EUR per month - Denmark, Finland, Ireland, Iceland, Luxembourg, Norway, Sweden;
  - 450 EUR per month – Austria, Belgium, Cyprus, France, Greece, Spain, The Netherlands, Malta, Germany, Portugal, Italy;
  - 400 EUR per month – Bulgaria, Croatia, Czech Republic, Estonia, Lithuania, Latvia, North Macedonia, Romania, Slovakia, Slovenia, Turkey, Hungary.
- c) Applications will be processed on an ongoing basis, in the order they were received until the places are available or the deadline for nominations at host university expires.
- d) The final decision on whether or not you will be accepted is up to the host university.

1. Terms and conditions

- at least one year of completed university studies is required;
- GPA (grade point average) of at least 3,49 for the last academic year is mandatory and not more than 1 conditional pass is allowed;
- a proof of language competence at the level required by the host university is obligatory;
- priority will be given to students whose field of study corresponds to the field of study foreseen in the Erasmus+ interinstitutional agreement with the host university (see the attached list of available places, grouped according to particular departments/ fields of study);
- students who have already been assigned an Erasmus mobility in this year's first or second round of recruitment CANNOT participate in the third round.

2. Documents required

- 2.1 You need to submit your application to the International Relations Office (there is no template of such a document – you need to write it yourself). The application should contain:
  - a) the name and the Erasmus code of the host university where you would like to study in the second semester (you can choose up to 2 universities) – please make sure that the university of your choice offers courses corresponding to your field of study at UW. If you apply for a place which is offered in a field of study different from yours, write the exact name of the department/ institute at the host university where you would like to study;
  - b) a brief justification of your choice of the host university.

Your application must be signed by the Erasmus coordinator at your home faculty.

- 2.2. A certificate with your GPA calculated for the last academic year and a certificate stating whether or not you have any conditional passes ('warunek' in Polish) at the faculty which is nominating you for the mobility.
- 2.3 A proof of having sufficient language competence in the language of instruction at the host university.
- 2.4 A declaration whether or not you have participated in LLP Erasmus, Erasmus Mundus and/or ERASMUS+ before at the UW or other universities.
- 2.5 A decision of admission for second-cycle studies at UW. It applies to students who will start their studies at UW from October 2019.

Please remember to put your current mobile phone number and email address in your application.

3. Application deadline – 15th of October 2019. This is the final date at UW. Please note that, the host university may have an earlier deadline regarding the nomination.

4. Where to submit the documents?

International Relations Office (IRO)
Krakowskie Przedmieście 26/28, Pałac Kazimierzowski (The Rectorate), 2nd floor, room 28
From Monday to Thursday between 9.30 a.m. and 2.00 p.m.

5. All students will be informed by email about the results of the recruitment process. Applications will be processed on an ongoing basis, in the order they were received. They will be assessed with respect to completeness of documents, as well as the host university's consent to make an exceptional deviation from the existing inter-institutional Erasmus+ agreement (a request for such a consent will be sent to the host university by IRO UW).
